

CAPABILITIES STATEMENT

Donya Melanson Associates (DMA) is a 100% woman-owned small business, certified as such by the Massachusetts State Office of Minority and Women Business Assistance (SOMWBA). For more than 30 years as a creative agency offering public information and marketing services, we have provided communications solutions for a wide range of clientele. Our clients include government agencies, educational institutions, Fortune 500 corporations, consumer products companies, publishers, industry and professional associations, museums, and financial organizations.

This extensive experience enables us to understand, reach, and educate a variety of diverse audiences – and translate that understanding into successful communication campaigns. Our goal is to provide the best possible service and results for our clients.

We have no minimum or maximum account-size restrictions and work on a project basis or on a monthly retainer, according to client preference. We look forward to helping you achieve your communication goals and welcome the opportunity to discuss specific ways we could assist your organization.
